What we do

- Largest provider of bespoke housing and home care for older people in South Australia
- A profit-for-purpose organisation established in 1964
- Affordable housing
- Home care
- To promote self determination and enable people to have the best possible life as they age.

Why we do what we do

- Over 90% of us aspire to live at home as we age and have a good and respectful death at home
- Only about 10% of Australians over 70 get to fulfil this aspiration - with approximately 50% dying in hospital and 40% in residential care
