I live in Mile End and I would like to make it known that I do not want my area to be a Housing Diversity Neighbourhood Zone. I believe it is most appropriate to be classified as a Suburban Neighbourhood Zone. Having bought a character house in a character suburb this will significantly effect our lifestyle, hopes and our political choices at the next election. If the density of the area is increased, where is the supporting infrastructure and amenities to coincide with this increase? School zoning is already a contentious issue in this area. Rezoning without a master plan for public services and infrastructure support will only negatively impact our area and the surrounding suburbs.
