anything that is over 100 years old should be automatically put on the heritage register and be protected from development. Too many of our heritage buildings are bulldozed for monetary gains and no other reason.

Your overview of confusing and messy and your own writers quit. Your own people don't understand it and redesigning something for the most part isn't broken is a massive waste of tax payers money that could be better spent on roads, schools, hospitals and protecting our heritage buildings for building ticky tacky boxes for the sake of filling in every inch of space we have in Adelaide.

Rules were designed and governed in the hills do this could never happen and these so called design rules would kill those open spaces that the hills are known for. Go back to the drawing board as this design code stinks
