To whom it may concern,
We are writing to express our deep concerns regarding changes to the Planning and design code for South Australia. Our primary concern is the Prospect council Residential 350 zoning programme. This allows developers to redevelop with high density housing ie: two or more stories, with numerous dwellings on one block of land. This will create parking and privacy issues with loss of trees and traffic congestion, not to mention the ambience of our tree lined street canopies. The online information is difficult to navigate and clumsy. It appears designed to prohibit access to relevant information.

Yours Faithfully,
Rachel and Martin Verdonk,
Broadview, 5083
