Q5 Enter your feedback for Rules of Interpretation

I object to the removal of protection status for National and Conservation Parks. These are National treasures and need ongoing protection from a development obsessed world. The great attraction for tourists to come to the island is the pristine natural beauty. The last thing this island needs is for this to be developed for a select few.

There is a parcel of land between Allen Lashmar Road and Cape Willoughby Road approximately 1 kilometre south of Antechamber bay. The land is divided into several small blocks of about 20 acres. The land is disused grazing land yet in the last development plan was zoned coastal conservation. I am sure no-one in the planning department has seen the land as it is so far back from the coast and needs to be developed and regenerated to reduce the land degradation and weed infestation. This land should be zoned rural and allow land owners to build environmentally sustainable houses. What the island needs is more people to live on the island to support the local businesses and build communities. The coastal land north of Allen Lashmar road is the natural boundary for Coastal Conservation.
